A Prayer for Mothers

Where would we be without our mother's love?
Lord, bless our mothers with wisdom to teach and guide their children in a way that will help them to follow You and to become men and women who will be pleasing in Your sight.

Give all mothers the patience to deal with the difficulties of their job and, most of all, give them a special blessing as they care so lovingly for the gifts that You have allowed them the honour of raising.

~Amen

CHANGE IN DELIVERY OF THE CATHOLIC LEADER

Social Justice Thought for the Week:

An Economy of Inclusion (Feast of St Joseph the Worker - 1 May)

It is simplistic and unfair to see unemployment as a matter of personal failure when our economy has failed to ensure the availability of adequate employment. It is not yet the economy of social inclusion that Pope Francis calls for!

Opinions may differ on what will best serve the common good, but let us remember that the common good is not served when vulnerable or disadvantaged people and groups are left out. As we approach the Federal election, let us revisit the invitation of the 2014 pastoral letter: "Think of the older worker made redundant by technology and becoming 'long-term unemployed'; a son or daughter completing their training but frustrated in the search for a job; a single mother trying to make ends meet on the Newstart Allowance; a household with work but still below the poverty line."

(Excerpt from 2019 Pastoral Letter from ACBC Office for Social Justice)
