Prayer of the Week:

Prayer of the Aboriginal People
 Father of all, You gave us the Dreaming,
 You have spoken to us through our beliefs,
 You then made Your love clear to us in the person of Jesus
 We thank You for Your care.
 You own us, You are our hope.
 Make us strong as we face the problems of change.
 We ask You to help the people of Australia
 to listen to us and respect our culture.
 Make the knowledge of You grow strong in all people,
 So that You can be at home in us and we can make a home
 For everyone in our land.
 Amen
 Prepared by Aboriginal people for Pope John Paul II's visit to Alice Springs 1986

Social Justice Thought for the Week:
 (NAIDOC Week: Sunday 7 July - Sunday, 14 July)

"You are part of Australia and Australia is part of you. And the Church herself in Australia will not be fully the Church that Jesus wants her to be until you have made your contribution to her life and until that contribution has been joyfully received by others."

(Pope St John Paul II at Alice Springs in 1986)

NAIDOC week is a special moment for us as Catholics. Ever since Pope John Paul II spoke at Alice Springs in 1986, we have accepted that we are called to work alongside Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples supporting them in their hopes for a more just future. Pope John Paul reminded us that God was present in this land from the beginning. God was present with each generation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples supporting and guiding them, enriching their culture and traditions, and giving them strength and wisdom to face the challenges of each day. And today, we know that God's presence continues to be with them.

This NAIDOC week's theme of Voice, Treaty and Truth, draws on the Uluru Statement from the Heart. This 2017 statement arose after 12 regional discussions over three years across Australia led to 250 delegates meeting and agreeing on three priorities for action. The Indigenous delegates seek a voice to parliament, they want a treaty negotiated between themselves as First Peoples and those who have come with British colonisation, and they ask for a process of truth-telling of past injustices. Each of these priorities are huge and vital for building a more just future for Indigenous Australians and also for all of us.

As Catholics, we can hear God at work in this NAIDOC focus of Voice, Treaty and Truth. We can hear God at work in the Uluru Statement from the Heart. We are called to listen to and take seriously these Indigenous aspirations. For our Catholic faith tells us that each of us, Indigenous included, are made in the image and likeness of God and have a right for our voice to be heard and respected. We know from our tradition that justice only comes about through mutual agreements (treaties) that are based on generosity and good faith. And we also know the significance of truth telling, especially when injustice is involved.

The call for us this NAIDOC week is to listen to and to take seriously Indigenous hopes. We are called to be allies working alongside in support of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander agenda. This requires that we let go of what we think are the best ways of solving present issues and to humbly allow the Uluru Statement from the Heart to be what we support.
