Prayer of the Week:

Mary, Star of the Sea, light of every ocean,
 guide seafarers across all dark and stormy seas
 that they may reach the haven of peace and light prepared in Him who calmed the sea.

As we set forth upon the oceans of the world and cross the deserts of our time, show us, O Mary,
 the fruit of your womb, for without your Son we are lost.

Pray that we will never fail on life's journey,
 that in heart and mind, work and deed,
 in days of turmoil and in days of calm,
 we will always look to Christ and say,
 "Who is this that even wind and sea obey him?"
 Our Lady of Peace, pray for us!
 Bright Star of the Sea, guide us!

Our Lady, Star of the Sea, pray for seafarers, pray for us.
(Pope John Paul II)

Social Justice Thought for the Week:

(NAIDOC Week: Sunday 7 July - Sunday, 14 July)

"IF THIS NATION CANNOT STAND UP FOR THE WEAKEST, THE POOREST AND THOSE WHO ARE MOST VULNERABLE BECAUSE OF THEIR RACE, THEIR ETHNICITY OR THEIR BELIEFS, THEN WE HAVE BECOME A VERY SAD REPLICATION OF WHAT DEMOCRACY IS ABOUT." PAT DODSON

NAIDOC week is a special moment for us as Catholics. Ever since Pope John Paul II spoke at Alice Springs in 1986, we have accepted that we are called to work alongside Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples supporting them in their hopes for a more just future. Pope John Paul reminded us that God was present in this land from the beginning. God was present with each generation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples supporting and guiding them, enriching their culture and traditions, and giving them strength and wisdom to face the challenges of each day. And today, we know that God's presence continues to be with them.

This NAIDOC week's theme of Voice, Treaty and Truth, draws on the Uluru Statement from the Heart. This 2017 statement arose after 12 regional discussions over three years across Australia led to 250 delegates meeting and agreeing on three priorities for action. The Indigenous delegates seek a voice to parliament, they want a treaty negotiated between themselves as First Peoples and those who have come with British colonisation, and they ask for a process of truth-telling of past injustices. Each of these priorities are huge and vital for building a more just future for Indigenous Australians and also for all of us.

As Catholics, we can hear God at work in this NAIDOC focus of Voice, Treaty and Truth. We can hear God at work in the Uluru Statement from the Heart. We are called to listen to and take seriously these Indigenous aspirations. For our Catholic faith tells us that each of us, Indigenous included, are made in the image and likeness of God and have a right for our voice to be heard and respected. We know from our tradition that justice only comes about through mutual agreements (treaties) that are based on generosity and good faith. And we also know the significance of truth telling, especially when injustice is involved.

The call for us this NAIDOC week is to listen to and to take seriously Indigenous hopes. We are called to be allies working alongside in support of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander agenda. This requires that we let go of what we think are the best ways of solving present issues and to humbly allow the Uluru Statement from the Heart to be what we support.

David Tutty, Executive Officer, Social Justice Commission

Laurie Reedy Collection: The next collection for the fund, which supports refugees and needy families in our local area, will be held July 27/28.
