Prayer of the Week:

A Prayer for the Feast of St. Óscar Romero – 24 March

St. Óscar Romero, courageous prophet and shepherd,
Forty-two years ago you cried out for peace, for an end to violence and oppression.
Here we find ourselves, again, witnessing atrocities and untold suffering.
Suffering enough to shake our faith in humanity, perhaps even our faith in God.
St. Óscar Romero, you walked this road before us— infuse us with your holy wisdom, your brave commitment to speaking the truth,
your persistence in breathing hope into hopeless situations,
until our voices are united with yours in one sacred call that echoes from heaven to earth:
In the name of God, stop this war.
Amen.

Social Justice News

Social Justice Thought for the Week:

Pope Francis remarked on the 'social media socialization' of our emotions which he warns invalidating our deepest feelings – and our spirits.

Bishop Erik Varden, a Cistercian monk, advises us, at these last weeks in our Lenten journey, that we shouldn't domesticate God's Spirit, that it both comforts us, but also devours us.

Varden maintains that the Spirit is a 'refiner's fire'. He adds that some proponents of 'cheap spirituality' claim that the Spirit's gifts are restricted to providing 'mere shallow improvements to our 'normal self'. Instead, he maintains that praying for the coming of the Spirit takes courage, requiring a will to be re-made, to be made 'new'. As Dietrich Bonhoeffer maintains, the Spirit's coming is 'costly, but life-giving'.

Pope Francis also advises that this 2024 Lent provides opportunities to let the Spirit guide our looking within ourselves, and acknowledging our real identity, removing masks that we so often wear, slowing down the frantic pace of our lives, with the Lenten purpose of embracing the Spirit filled truth of who we are.

Finally, that we embrace the Spirit during Lent, to encourage all Christians to love all our brothers and sisters, to be considerate of and feel compassion and show mercy to others. Above all to 'share all that we are, and all that we have with those in need'.

Next meeting Wednesday, 3rd April at 5pm in Parish Office. All welcome!

Parish News

THROUGH THE DESERT ... God leads us to freedom

As the season of Lent edges closer to Holy Week, the Vatican has released another graffiti style painting from Italian street artist Maupal.

These art releases, have been arranged by the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development.

Each of the pieces feature Pope Francis taking part in activities that reflect on his 2024 Lenten theme: "Through the desert God leads us to freedom." Whereas the drawings of previous weeks have featured bleak landscapes, this week we are shown a much more lush environment.

On a grassy field, Pope Francis dances with a man, woman, and two children of diverse backgrounds, all joined in a circle while holding hands. The dancers revolve around a glass of clean water on a picnic blanket, and suggests they are celebrating the accessibility of clean drinking water.

Pope Francis' artistic facsimile has had a very busy Lent so far.

We've seen him push a wheelbarrow of faith through a desert of nails, stage a jailbreak to release prisoners from the shackles of "fear" and "hate," present young migrant soccer players with a green card, and topple world currencies from their seat on the pillar of idolatry.

This fifth painting released for Lent is a nod towards Pope Francis' 2015 environmental encyclical Laudato Si, which directs the faithful to care for our common home. The missive, which references water nearly 50 times, states of drinking water: "Access to safe drinkable water is a basic and universal human right, since it is essential to human survival and, as such, is a condition for the exercise of other human rights."

There are two more Maupal drawings planned to be released from the Vatican before Easter. I look forward to bringing them to you as they arrive. Fr. Jamie

Finance News:

The Parish finances have been audited for Financial Year ended 30 June 2023 and there are copies of the annual Report to the Parish in the foyer for your collection.

Easter Rosters:

If you are here for Easter weekend and are available to assist with ministry roles, please place your name on sheets in foyer. Names need to be added by this Sunday, 24th March. Rosters will be emailed out by Wednesday, 27th March.

Access to Church:

Here at St Anthony's we are very mindful of our less able-bodied parishioners and wish to make accessing the church as easy as possible. The stencilled concrete area in front of the entrance has a steep incline at the side doors, so the centre door/s will be open at ALL masses to make entry easier as the incline here is much less. We welcome feedback from anyone, but especially those using walking frames or wheelchairs. Let us know if this works or not for you. Thank you.

Planned Giving:

It is almost time to order envelopes for those who currently use the envelope system for their weekly giving to the parish. If you would like to join our Planned Giving program, please contact Noela at the Parish Office asap. If you are currently using envelopes and would like to change to Direct Debit, so you don't need to rummage for cash each weekend, please also speak to Noela to arrange for this. Please give some serious thought to your mode of giving as envelopes need to be ordered after Easter and we don't want to order any more than necessary, as the cost appears to be rising each year (like everything else I guess). Thanks

Scripture Readings – Palm Sunday

First Reading – Isaiah 50:4-7

God has given me a disciple's tongue.
So that I may know how to reply to the wearied, God provides me with speech.
Each morning God wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple.
God has opened my ear.
For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away.
I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;
I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.
God comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults.
So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The Word of God.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 50

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'You trusted in God, let God save you; let God release you if you are God's friend.' [R]

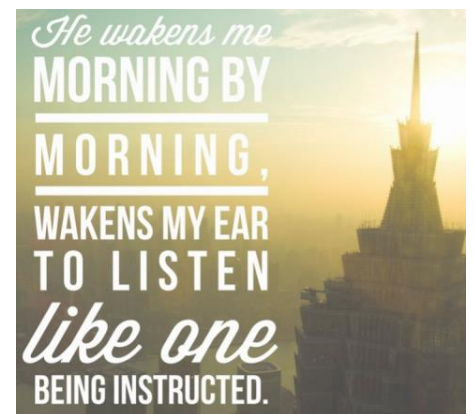

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. [R]

They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe.
O God, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! [R]

I will tell of your name to my people and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear God give praise; all descendants of Jacob, give glory. Revere God, Israel's children. [R]

Second Reading – Philippians 2:6-11

Christ's state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave and became as human beings are; and being like us, Christ was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised Jesus high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Exalted One, to the glory of God.

The Word of God.

Gospel Acclamation –

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross.
Therefore God raised Him on high and gave Him a name above all other names.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel – John 12:12-16

A great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Jesus, crying, 'Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the king of Israel!'

And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as is written,

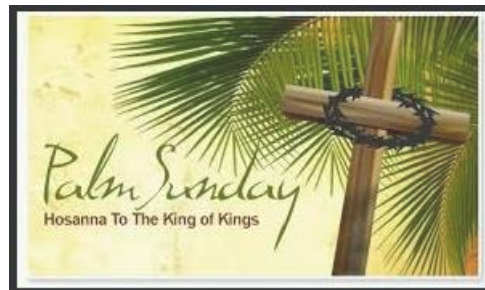

'Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!'

His disciples did not understand this at first;

but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of Him and had been done to Him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

SCRIPTURE READINGS for Daily Mass (Australian Liturgical Calendar): <http://www.universalis.com/Australia/1000/mass.html>

A Reflection by St Paul VI 11 April 1976

Holy Week! We want to honour your religious sense, your taste for the beauty of spiritual things, your understanding of the poem of the liturgy by exhorting you to consider these days of Holy Week as days to be discovered that are always new, always exceptional, always worthy of the utmost interest. The supreme vision of the world, of our life, of pain, of evil, of our final destiny passes before our gaze, while the drama of redemption, with the cruel Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ and with his death and with his resurrection, exerts an incomparable fascination on the human spirit and on the entire Church, while the suggestion of ineffable rites attracts and moves us, if we just pay humble and intelligent attention to them.

Christ is present. We cannot be absent. It's not enough to give you a fleeting thought. It is not even enough to attend the celebratory rites as spectators. Now more than ever the liturgy demands our personal and community participation. Let us allow ourselves to be invaded by the Spirit that emanates from the celebration of these mysteries, and which attracts us all, shocks us and renews us. This is the time.

And let the impetus of the problems, evoked to act on our consciences, erupt; first with arrogance to re-establish true inner peace; then to tone in us the exact sensitivity of the inevitable questions of our existence, first among these the clarity on the religious ideas of our time, then the secret of pain, the value to be attributed to contemporary culture, the pressing duties for justice and for the social order (See AAS 48 (1956) 724), etc.; and finally our personal decision to carry our cross, that is, to duty, to love, to forgiveness, to sacrifice; yes, with Christ, for Christ. This is Christ's hour and it is our hour. Let us not miss the appointment of salvation. We will meet with Mary, given to us as a mother by her dying son.

Prayers of the Faithful – Passion (Palm) Sunday - 24th March 2024

Celebrant: Friends, in entering into the mystery of the Passion of Jesus we reach out in prayer for all whose lives are marked with suffering.

For the Church in suffering: may those enduring persecution be sustained in grace.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For our broken world: may the wars in the Holy Land and Ukraine cease, suffering come to an end and peace be restored everywhere.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For people everywhere: may despair and pain be lifted from every heart.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For our nation: may those burdened with homelessness, fear and poverty not be forgotten.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those preparing for their Easter baptism: may Jesus Christ be their life always.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For donors to Project Compassion, that our support for the work of Caritas Australia and its partners will not be confined to Lent but will continue throughout the year.
Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for our parish community, that these days of Holy Week will inspire us to follow ever more closely in the footsteps of Jesus, our way, our truth and our life.
Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who have died recently; Neville Dredge, Fr Kevin Bates sm, Ian Johnson, Gloria Litster, Ronald Bryant, Margaret Macarthur-Onslow, and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time; Paula Missen, Trish Fitzgerald. May union with Father, Son and Holy Spirit be their eternal joy.
Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: O God, as you unite the suffering people of our Church and world with the passion and death of your Son, Jesus, so we pray with great trust and confidence, that they may share the glory of his resurrection, for he lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Sixth Sunday of Lent (Palm Sunday) 23 & 24 February

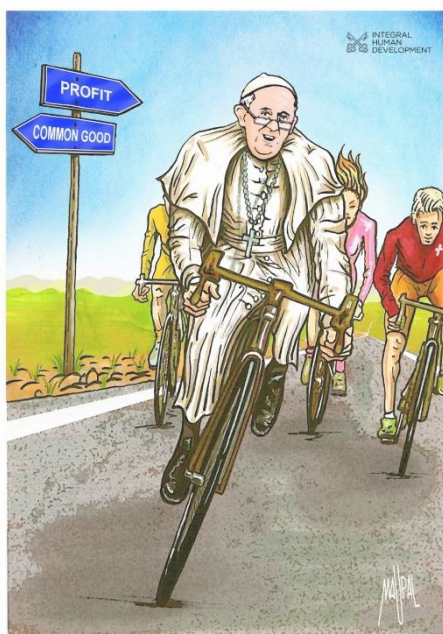

As Project Compassion 2024 comes to an end, we want to thank you for your incredibly generous support throughout Lent.

This year, we shared with you the story of three inspiring women from across the globe, who overcame challenges to complete their education, access water and find secure employment. With the support of compassionate people like you, they are now forging a path to a better future for their families and their communities.

There is still time to donate! Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow, for all future generations.

Please donate to Project Compassion

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

THROUGH THE DESERT GOD LEADS US TO FREEDOM – Latest Drawing Released

The sixth instalment in a series of seven “street art” inspired drawings has been released in time for Palm Sunday. The latest drawing features Pope Francis leading a group of cyclists as they race down a road.

In the scene, the group is just passing a sign that directs the road from “Profit” to the “Common Good.”

The Pope is grinning as he leads the pack onward in the direction of the common good, while posed in an action shot that gives the appearance of biking at high speed.

Each of the six drawings released during Lent have featured Pope Francis taking part in a different activity – from dancing in a field at a picnic to staging a prison escape to breaking the bonds of “hate” and “fear.”

The artist’s style tends to focus on creating highly detailed — especially in the clothing — and emotive characters. On the dicastery webpage, the announcement of the new artwork points toward a passage of Pope Francis’ Lenten message, in which he reminds us that the “love of God and love of neighbour are one love.”

The Pope invites the faithful “to pause in the presence of God beside the flesh of our neighbour.” With Easter Sunday fast approaching, the Vatican has just one more Maupal painting to release, which we will publish in the newsletter for the Easter weekend.
