Social Justice News

National Reconciliation Week—held every year from 27 May to 3 June—is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia. At its heart, reconciliation is about strengthening relationships between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and non-Indigenous peoples, for the benefit of all Australians. Flyers available in Foyer.

Next meeting, Monday 3rd June at 5pm in Parish Office. All welcome!

Winter Shelter 2024 As the nights become colder and we snuggle into our warm beds, let's be aware of those who don't have such comforts. Our first opportunity as a parish to help provide a warm welcome, hot meal and a comfy bed for local homeless people occurs on Monday 10 June. St Theresa's is the venue, but St Anthony's has committed to providing soup and dessert for approximately 15 guests and supporters. The soup and dessert would need to be dropped off at St Theresa's Church between 3.30-4.30 pm on the 10th.

Please let Noela or Leesa know if you can help with either of these requirements, so that we can plan for any shortfall. Alternatively, members of our faith community may like to help by contributing any of the following items: warm socks, gloves, packets of munchies such as chips, chewing gum, sweets and small packs of toiletries. These can be left at our St Anthony's office any time before Friday 7 June.

In anticipation of your legendary generous response to such appeals, many thanks!

TAKING A LEAP OF FAITH

This week has been an important one for some of the younger people of our parish. They have, in recent times, been on a journey of discovery, and learning, with their families in our Parish Sacramental Program.

Joining the Sacramental Program and preparing for the celebration of Confirmation and First Communion, they have really been undertaking a leap of faith – but with our prayerful support on this happy and important stage in their journey of faith.

It is opportune that we celebrate First Holy Communion on the Feast of Corpus Christi – the Body and Blood of Christ. This Sunday completes our transition from the days of the Easter Season into Ordinary Time on the church calendar.

Recently we celebrated the arrival of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, marking the birthday of the Church. Then we came to the Feast of the Holy Trinity last Sunday. Today our focus falls to Jesus making himself known in the sacrifice of the Eucharist, the church's 'greatest treasure'.

We are able to trace what we gather for at Mass each week back to the evening of the Last Supper, where Jesus commanded his followers to continue to "do this in 'memory', in 'remembrance' of me". We uphold that undertaking each time we gather for Eucharist here in the church.

The Eucharist is often referred to as the source and summit of the Christian life. That is why it is wonderful to be able to celebrate First Communion this weekend with our young people who were confirmed by Bishop Ken Howell on Tuesday evening.

Their journey of faith has been enriched by the desire of their parents to see them fully initiated into the Christian Church. It is always a heart-warming experience when we see families acknowledge something of value within their faith that they wish to see it come alive within their children's lives.

I am sure the children and their families would appreciate your continued prayerful support as they take this leap of faith in a world so vastly different to the one that we were a part of when preparing for our own Confirmation and First Communion.

Fr. Jamie

Ministry Roster:

On the back of this newsletter is a response sheet for the next Ministry Roster, commencing August. Please look and see if there is something you might be able to volunteer for. We are always looking for new people to join. Training is given so don't be put off by not knowing what is expected. Response forms are due back end of June so rosters can be compiled and distributed prior to August commencement. Thanks for Volunteering!

Scripture Readings – The Body and Blood of Christ

First Reading – Exodus 24:3-8

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Most High God and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, "We will observe all the commands that the Most High God has decreed." Moses put all the commands of God into writing, and early next morning built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then Moses directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to God as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put in the basins, and cast the other half on the altar. Taking the book of the Covenant Moses read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that God has decreed. We will obey.' 'Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. 'This' Moses said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Most High God has made with you, containing all these rules.'

The Word of God.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 115 I will take the cup of salvation and call on the name of our God.

How can I repay you O God for your goodness to me? The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on your name. [R]

O precious in your eyes O God is the death of your faithful.

Your servant, O God, your servant am I; you have loosened my bonds. [R]

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make: I will call on your name. My vows to you O God I will fulfil before all your people. [R]

Second Reading – Hebrews 9:11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. Christ has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by human hands because it is not of this created order; and has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us.

The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement, and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

Christ brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: Christ's death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

The Word of God.

Gospel Acclamation –

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel – Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?' So, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with my disciples?" The owner will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as Jesus had told them and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating, Jesus said 'this is my body.', and when he had said the blessing, he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said, 'this is my body.' Then Jesus took a cup, and having returned thanks, gave it to them. "Take it,' Jesus said, 'this is my body.' Then Jesus took a cup, and having returned thanks, gave it to them, and all drank from it; and Jesus said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the realm of God.'

After psalms had been sung, they left for the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ.

HOMILY OF POPE BENEDICT XVI 11 June 2009,

These words that Jesus spoke at the Last Supper are repeated every time that the Eucharistic Sacrifice is renewed. We have just heard them in Mark's Gospel, and they resonate with special power today on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. They lead us in spirit to the Upper Room, they make us relive the spiritual atmosphere of that night when, celebrating Easter with his followers, the Lord mystically anticipated the sacrifice that was to be consummated the following day on the Cross. The Institution of the Eucharist thus appears to us as an anticipation and acceptance, on Jesus' part, of his death. St Ephrem the Syrian writes on this topic: during the Supper Jesus sacrificed himself; on the Cross he was sacrificed by others (cf. Hymn on the Crucifixion, 3, 1).

This is my Blood". Here the reference to the sacrificial language of Israel is clear. Jesus presents himself as the true and definitive sacrifice, in which was fulfilled the expiation of sins which, in the Old Testament rites, was never fully completed.

This is followed by two other very important remarks. First of all, Jesus Christ says that his Blood "is poured out for many" with a comprehensible reference to the songs of the Servant of God that are found in the Book of Isaiah (cf. ch. 53). With the addition "blood of the Covenant" Jesus also makes clear that through his death the prophesy of the new Covenant is fulfilled, based on the fidelity and infinite love of the Son made man. An alliance that, therefore, is stronger than all humanity's sins. The old Covenant had been sealed on Sinai with a sacrificial rite of animals, as we heard in the First Reading, and the Chosen People, set free from slavery in Egypt, had promised to obey all the commandments given to them by the Lord (cf. Ex 24: 3). In truth, Israel showed immediately by making the golden calf that it was incapable of staying faithful to this promise and thus to the divine Covenant, which indeed it subsequently violated all too often, adapting to its heart of stone the Law that should have taught it the way of life. However, the Lord did not fail to keep his promise and, through the prophets, sought to recall the inner dimension of the Covenant and announced that he would write a new law upon the hearts of his faithful (cf. Jer 31: 33), transforming them with the gift of the Spirit (cf. Ez 36: 25-27). And it was during the Last Supper that he made this new Covenant with his disciples and humanity, confirming it not with animal sacrifices as had happened in the past, but indeed with his own Blood, which became the "Blood of the New Covenant". Thus, he based it on his own obedience, stronger, as I said, than all our sins. This is clearly highlighted in the Second Reading, taken from the Letter to the Hebrews, in which the sacred author declares that Jesus is the "mediator of a new covenant" (9: 15). He became so through his blood, or, more exactly, through the gift of himself, which gives full value to the outpouring of his blood. On the Cross, Jesus is at the same time victim and priest: a victim worthy of God because he was unblemished, and a High Priest who offers himself, by the power of the Holy Spirit, and intercedes for the whole of humanity. The Cross is therefore a mystery of love and of salvation which cleanses us as the Letter to the Hebrews states from "dead works", that is, from sins, and sanctifies us by engraving the New Covenant upon our hearts. The Eucharist, making present the sacrifice of the Cross, renders us capable of living communion with God faithfully.

Prayers of the Faithful – Body and Blood of Christ

First Holy Communion

Presider: Dear friends, today we thank and praise God for nourishing us with the bread of life and cup of salvation. Gathered at the table of the Lord, let us open our hearts in prayer for the whole of God's created world.

We pray for Christian communities in every land that break bread in memory of Jesus. May they become bread broken for others and wine poured out in compassion for the poor. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for all who minister at our Sunday Eucharist. May they make plain the teaching of Pope Francis, that every eucharist is an act of cosmic love that calls us to be stewards of creation. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for communities deprived of the Eucharist, that their faith will be inspired and nourished by the word of God. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for the children who were confirmed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit this week. May they continue to let the Spirit shine through them as they continue along their journey of faith. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for all who will celebrate their First Holy Communion in our Parish this weekend. May they have the full prayerful support of their families and fellow parishioners as they take their place at our community table. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for the many millions of people now suffering from starvation and disease in the war-torn parts of the world. May governments and aid agencies have our generous support in addressing this intense humanitarian crisis. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for the homeless and the poor as winter begins to take hold. May we be inspired to show support for the good work of St. Vincent de Paul through their Winter Appeal and also our practical support of the Winter Shelter Project in Toowoomba. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for the recently deceased Gerri Hancox, Damian Potter, Venie Watt, Alan Litster, Neville Horsten, Beryl Cullen, Aldo Nicoletti, June Robertson, Mary Elmes, Judy Reardon, Fr. Jim Smith and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time Patricia Yong, David Gibson that they will be made welcome at the banquet of eternal life. Lord hear our prayer.

Presider: It is in memory of Jesus we break bread together; to make his sacrifice our own, we take the cup of salvation. Let us pray for the whole world to embrace his new covenant of love. Keep us who eat his body and drink his blood true to his name. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

If you are concerned for any form of abuse that is immediate you should call 000;

a significant risk or harm, whether or not you have formed this belief on reasonable ground, you should immediately raise your concerns with our Parish Child Safety Officer – Nicole Rangjiira 0437 382 408.

Children leaving the Church during Mass are to be accompanied by an adult. Thank you.

St Anthony's Liturgical Ministry Areas

August 2024 - January 2025 Response Sheet

Please note that you need to fill in a Response Sheet every 6 months**

Just because you were rostered on last time doesn't mean you are automatically rostered on this time.

People will ONLY be placed on the new roster if they complete and return their form!

If you missed being on the last roster, please ensure you fill one out this time.

Alternately contact the Parish Office – 4636 1737. Thanks for your support.

We realise some people are away at times and don't wish to commit because of this. You are still encouraged to complete the form, just put an R for reserve next to ministry you can sometimes help with. You will then be contacted to fill in when someone else is away.

Which Mass would you be prepared to help at –

5 or 6.00pm (Saturday Vigil)

8.30am (Sunday)

Do you have a preferred weekend – 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, Any?

LITURGICAL MINISTRY

We commit ourselves to promoting and celebrating life-giving Liturgy:

to be prayerful and inclusive

- Welcomer: warmly welcoming those who gather for prayer and Mass
- Reader: proclaiming God's living Word in the community
- Prayers of the Faithful: presenting the needs of our church and community
- Presentation of Gifts: presenting the community's gifts
- Communion Minister: offering Holy Communion to those at Mass
- Communion to the sick: taking communion to those unable to attend Mass
- Musician: leading the community in song and prayer
- Singer: supporting the community in song and prayer
- Altar Assistant: assisting the Priest who presides at Mass
- Money Collector: taking up the collection at Mass
- Mass Coordinator: organising the different Ministers for the celebration of Mass –
 - Both before & after
 - Before ONLY
 - After ONLY – involves a quick tidy-up after Mass
- Church setup: preparing our church for Eucharist and Liturgies
- Children's Liturgy: breaking open God's Word in ways that our children may understand and appreciate
- Transport to and from Mass: helping with access and transport to Mass
- Money Counter: counting the weekend collections after Sunday Mass
- Church Environment: cleaning and care of floral arrangements
- Care of vestments & church linen: washing and ironing
- Sunday Morning Tea: organising/assisting and providing Morning tea after Sunday Mass
- Audio Visual Operator: operating lap-top during Mass

Please ensure your response is returned by 30th June so that the new rosters can be prepared and ready for your collection.

If you are unsure of how you would like to assist or indeed able to, then please speak with Fr Jamie or Noela at the Parish Office.

Training for all ministries is available so please don't feel you can't do something just because you haven't done so before.

We welcome and encourage everyone to take an active role in our weekend liturgies.

I would love to assist in a ministry, but need to speak to someone first to gain further information.
