JUNE 18, GUEST SPEAKER

Hear from Fiona McGill, Chair of the Sunshine Coast Reconciliation Group.
Be inspired about what is possible at a grassroots change level.

We are delighted to have Fiona McGill, Chair of the Sunshine Coast Reconciliation Group. She will share stories of their efforts, including running 'Shared History' seminars and the use of NAIDOC stalls and displays. In the lead up to the Referendum and beginning with a working group of 5 people, they mobilised over 500 volunteers on the Coast. They formed key partnerships and ran community talks to dispel the myths of the No campaign. And there's more!

RSVP: info@tfna.asn.au by Sunday, 16 June. Any queries: janesherwin4005@gmail.com

Next meeting, Monday 1st July at 5pm in Parish Office. All welcome!

Social Justice Group - June Meeting

There's a busy time ahead for St Anthony's Social Justice group. At our June meeting, we made plans for upcoming events: Winter Shelter, the Official Opening and Food Festival at our neighbouring Mosque, Refugee Week, NAIDOC Week and September's Season of Creation.

At the first of these – Winter Shelter – three members of our faith community have volunteered to support local homeless people overnight on 10 June, while other members of our community have generously donated, or promised, food, toiletries and money to buy provisions. We are very grateful for these gifts, especially as Winter is upon us and the nights have suddenly become so much colder.

In this weekend's bulletin there are flyers relating to some of the activities in which we will be involved. Perhaps think about which one you might support when that event is celebrated.

To avoid a timetable clash with the Abrahamic Faiths gathering, our members decided to move our meeting time to the first Monday of each month. Our next meeting is scheduled for Monday, 1 July, 5.00pm in the Parish Centre. Please feel free to join us. You'd be more than welcome.

Winter Shelter 2024

Many thanks to our generous St Anthony's parishioners who donated food, munchies, woolly socks, toiletries and money for our first venture into Winter Shelter this year. Monday night was very cold, but our guests were snug, very well fed, and oh so grateful for the comfort of a warm bed on a freezing night. St Anthony's is rostered on for two more Winter Shelter evenings – 8 July and 5 August – but we'll update you further as we approach those dates. In the meantime, heartfelt blessings and thanks from our Winter Shelter guests.

If you are able to make a dessert for 8 July, please advise the office. We, St Anthony's, are not providing anything other than desserts for 8th of July. St Therese's are providing everything else'.

FINDING FREEDOM: FAMILY

This weekend marks the commencement of Refugee Week in Australia. It is always held from Sunday to Saturday of the week which includes June 20, World Refugee Day.

This is not to be confused with Migrant and Refugee Sunday organised by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference. That celebration will take place later in the year at the end of September.

Refugee Week is organised by the Refugee Council of Australia. To mark the occasion, we will welcome Josephine Mardini to speak at the Masses next weekend at the close of Refugee Week for this year.

It is interesting to note that World Refugee Day is celebrated globally, but Refugee Week is held only in a limited number of countries. The United Kingdom followed Australia's lead in 1998 and became the second country to celebrate Refugee Week.

Now Refugee Week events are held in Australia, UK, Greece, Malta, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Berlin. Apart from traditional local events which bring people together to meet, eat and celebrate, the aims of Refugee Week are:

- to educate the Australian public about who refugees are and why they have come to Australia;
- to help people understand the many challenges refugees face coming to Australia;
- to celebrate the contribution refugees make to our community;
- to focus on how the community can provide a safe and welcoming environment for refugees;
- for community groups and individuals to do something positive for refugees, people seeking asylum and displaced people, within Australia but also around the world; and
- for service providers to reflect on whether they are providing the best possible services to refugees.

Fr. Jamie

If you have any concerns, please contact Leesa at the Parish Office. It is a sad world we live in now and it certainly calls on our upmost awareness.

Scripture Readings – Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary time

First Reading – Ezekiel 17:22-24

The Most High God says this: ' From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain.

I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar.

Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches.

And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Most High, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, your God, have spoken, and I will do it.'

This is the Word of God.

Responsorial Psalm – 91

R: O God, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to you, O God, to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. [R]

The just will flourish like the palm tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. [R]

Planted in the house of God they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that our God is just.

In God, our rock, there is no wrong. [R]

Second Reading – St Paul to the Corinthians 5:6-10

We are always full of confidence, even though we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from Christ Jesus – for we walk by faith and not by sight. Yes, we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with Christ. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing Christ. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what we deserve for the things we did in the body, good or bad.

This is the Word of God.

Gospel Acclamation –

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live forever.
says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel – Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: 'This is what the reign of God is like. A sower throws seeds on the land. Night and day, while the sower sleeps, and then wakes, the seed is sprouting and growing; how the sower does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, the sower loses no time, starting to reap because that harvest has come.'

Jesus also said, 'What can we say the reign of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Using many parables like these, Jesus spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. Jesus would not speak to them in parables, but explained everything to the disciples when they were alone.

This is the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis: An encounter with a migrant is an encounter with Christ

In his message for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees, Pope Francis invites us to see migrations as a sign of the times and as a symbol of the Church's pilgrimage throughout history.

"See in the migrants of our time, as in those of every age, a living image of God's people on their way to the eternal homeland," writes Pope Francis in his 2024 Message for the 110th World Day of Migrants and Refugees.

The World Day is a call to believers to show support and closeness to the millions of men, women and children who are forced to leave their homes. The current global estimate is that there were around 281 million international migrants in the world in 2020, which equates to 3.6 per cent of the global population, and that number continues to rise.

Pointing out that God not only walks with His people, but also within them, the Pope invites us all to walk in a "synodal" way - in the Church and in the world - in order to move forward on our own pilgrimage toward the heavenly homeland.

Pope's June prayer intention: 'For those fleeing their own countries'

The message's title, "God walks with His people," immediately points to the synodal dimension the Pope constantly invites the Church and the people of God to live every day and in every moment.

The Pope writes, "Synodality is mainly presented as a joint journey of the People of God" that allows the Church "to rediscover its itinerant nature, as the People of God journeying through history on pilgrimage, 'migrating', we could say, toward the Kingdom of Heaven."

Thus, as he so often does, the Pope calls us to recognize the Lord present in the millions of people who are forced to migrate due to conflict, persecution, poverty, and the climate crisis, "as a living image of God's people on their way to the eternal homeland."

Prayers of the Faithful - Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRESIDER: Dear friends, whenever we meet in Jesus' name, seeds of divine wisdom are sown in our hearts. In union with Jesus, let us pray for the whole world to flourish with wisdom.

We pray for Pope Francis, bishop of Rome, and all bishops of local churches, that they will be great tellers of the Christian story for the world to hear.                      Lord, hear our prayer

We pray for all who are sowing mustard seeds of peace in Israel and Palestine, and in every place of terrible warfare, that their humble efforts will bring results beyond imagining.                      Lord, hear our prayer

We pray for the 130 million forcibly displaced or stateless people in the world, that this Refugee Week will persuade more and more nations to share the responsibility of providing them with shelter, safety and sustenance.                      Lord, hear our prayer

We pray for the children of Sudan, that the international community will provide the aid needed to avert the famine engulfing their land and its peoples.                      Lord, hear our prayer

We pray for young people fired with a passion for justice and a better world, that they will be a leaven of hope and vigour for the whole community. Lord, hear our prayer

We pray for prisoners released on parole, especially those who have served long sentences for serious crimes, that they will be well accompanied in their adjustment to life and work in society. Lord, hear our prayer

We pray for the recently deceased Joan O'Dempsey, Keith Wyllie, Kevin O'Dempsey, Rick Van Dongen, Gerri Hancox, Damian Potter, Venie Watt, Alan Litster, Neville Horsten, Beryl Cullen, Aldo Nicoletti, June Robertson, Mary Elmes, Judy Reardon, Fr. Jim Smith and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time, Mary Frost, Joe Andress, Hedy Hurlimann, Chris Collins, that they will gladly take their place with all the saints in the courts of heaven.

Lord, hear our prayer

PRESIDER

God of all wisdom, you never cease revealing to us the mystery of your love. Help us put that love to work in our care for one another. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Diocesan News

Stop the anti-faith Anti-Discrimination Bill:

The Queensland Government have released a draft Anti-Discrimination bill, that would be the most restrictive regime in Australia for religious freedoms. It would significantly restrict the ability of churches, schools and other faith organisations to choose who we employ, as well as introducing other harsh restrictions. The most important thing you can do is to write to your local MP and tell them you are concerned about the bill. Politicians won't know that we care about this unless we tell them. A website has been launched by the combined heads of faith to make it easy for you to learn more about the bill and write to your MP. Please take 5 minutes to write to your MP today.
