Prayer of the Week

Loving God,
 We pray that your Spirit may continue to move in this land, bringing forgiveness, reconciliation and an end to all injustice.
 We thank you for the survival of Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander cultures.
 Give us the courage to acknowledge the pain and shame of our history and forgive us for the suffering caused to First Nations peoples.
 We make this prayer in the name of the God of all creation;
 in the name of Jesus who showed the way to inclusion;
 and in the name of the Spirit who empowers compassion and forgiveness.
 Amen.

Social Justice News

NAIDOC Week (7 July – 14 July) is an opportunity to acknowledge and honour the history, culture, and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Originating from the National Aborigines and Islanders Day Observance Committee (NAIDOC), this year's theme is "Keep the Fire Burning! Blak, Loud and Proud", honouring the enduring strength and vitality of First Nations culture.

Within the Church, we also observe Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday (July 7). This day provides an opportunity for Catholic communities to celebrate the rich cultural heritage and spiritual traditions of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. It encourages congregations to reflect on the contributions and resilience of Indigenous communities and to pray for their well-being and advancement. This observance underscores the importance of integrating Indigenous perspectives and voices within the fabric of the Church's life and mission.

The importance of reconciliation in Australia is profound, aiming to repair and strengthen the relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Australians. Reconciliation involves acknowledging past injustices, addressing current inequalities, and fostering mutual respect and understanding. It is essential for creating a cohesive society where the rights, cultures, and histories of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are recognized and valued. Efforts toward reconciliation are not only about addressing historical wrongs but also about ensuring equitable opportunities and outcomes for Indigenous Australians in all aspects of life.

For the Catholic Church in Australia, reconciliation is deeply tied to its mission of social justice and inclusivity. The 2023-2024 Social Justice Statement “Listen, Learn, Love: A New Engagement with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples” outlined the significant part the Church has to play in the reconciliation process through advocating for the rights and dignity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. This includes supporting initiatives that promote healing, cultural preservation, and empowerment. By embracing reconciliation, the Church can contribute to a more just and compassionate society, aligning its actions with the principles of love, respect, and solidarity that are central to its teachings. You can find more information about NAIDOC Week resources and events at <https://www.naidoc.org.au/>

Next meeting, Monday 1st July at 5pm in Parish Office. All welcome!

Parish News

A DIGITALLY ENHANCED LIFE ... OR NOT?

Singer and songwriter Graeme Connors is currently undertaking a tour of regional and rural Queensland. Last week he was interviewed on ABC Radio, and he spoke about how difficult it is to use traditional forms of media to give publicity to his concerts.

He referred particularly to the demise of country newspapers a few years ago. There are now just four daily newspapers printed in provincial Queensland – The Chronicle being one of them. The majority of regional newspapers in Queensland were closed down or shifted to digital only.

Some mastheads were over 150 years old. It just proves the immense impact of social media on our daily living. Social media has infiltrated all levels of our daily life. It may seem a little unfair at times that people are forced into adapting and changing their ways – just to keep up.

When a performer with the status of Graeme Connors admits that he must be somewhat of a ‘dinosaur’ in that he is unable to ‘get the word out’ about his concerts, in a digital world, highlights just how far we have allowed ourselves to be affected by all forms of social media.

However, we have also come a long way since the days of earlier biblical times, such as what is spoken of in this weekend’s gospel. Of course, back then there were no daily newspapers, radio or television – and definitely no internet or social media.

Yet large crowds still gathered everywhere Jesus went. The word still got out! His reputation must certainly have preceded him. People gathered from all around. Two encounters with the crowds are given in this week’s Gospel.

We read of Jesus performing healing miracles with people who showed a great depth of faith. As we reflect on the faith of those who were seeking healing in the Gospel this weekend, we might cast our mind back to last week when the disciples of Jesus showed a distinct lack of faith.

They were in a boat on a lake in the middle of a windstorm. Put simply, what we take from this Gospel must be to persevere with the challenges that are handed us in life and trust that our faith will be strong enough to sustain us and see us through.

To the point where the words of Jesus in the Gospel today are made real for us in our lives: Daughter, your faith (i.e. your total trust in me) has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your disease.

Fr. Jamie

Finance Meeting Time: Finance committee is now meeting at the earlier time of 6pm instead of 7pm. This will apply until further notice.

Planned Giving Envelopes:

Envelopes for the next Financial Year are now available in the foyer for collection. If anyone else would like to join the planned giving scheme, please contact the Parish Office – 4636 1737. Also, if anyone has accidentally picked up a box that does not have their number on it please return it to the office as one seems to be missing. Thank you.

MINISTRY ROSTER: Volunteer Sheets due back by the end of month

Calling for Musicians out There We are needing more organ players to join our community for weekend Masses. Please if you know of any talented musicians who would like to join us, please contact Leesa at the Parish Office Ph: 46361737.

AV Operators: Would anyone like to volunteer to assist with AV operating for weekend Masses? We would team you with one of our AV team to show you how it works. Please contact Leesa at the Parish Office if you are interested in learning.

Winter Shelter: If anyone can help supply a dessert for Monday 8th July would be greatly appreciated. If able to help, please leave desserts at St Thomas Moore's church office no later than Sunday 7th.

Scripture Readings – Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary time

First Reading – Wisdom 1:13-15;2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, God takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be- for this, God created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make us imperishable. We are made in the image of God's own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world as those who are the devil's partners will discover. The Word of God

Responsorial Psalm

All Respond: I will praise you, O God, you have rescued me.

I will praise you, O God, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O God, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R)

We shall sing psalms to you, we who love you, we shall give thanks to your holy name. Your anger lasts but a moment: your favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R)

You listened and had pity. You came to my help. For me, you have changed my mourning into dancing, O God, my God, I will thank you for ever. (R)

Second Reading – St Paul to the Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous Christ Jesus was: he was rich, but became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The one who gathered much had none too much, the one who gathered little did not go short. The Word of God.

Gospel- Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing Jesus, fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with Jairus and a large crowd followed; they were pressing all round Jesus.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years: after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I shall be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes? The disciples said, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But Jesus continued to look round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told Jesus the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While Jesus was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard the remark of theirs and said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And Jesus allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly.

Jesus went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So Jesus turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his companions, went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, "Talitha,kum!" which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and Jesus ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat. The Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis Message

"No sin, no failure, no grudge should discourage us from insistently asking for this gift from the Holy Spirit who gives us peace. The more we feel our hearts are agitated, the more we sense we are nervous, impatient, angry inside, the more we need to ask the Lord for the Spirit of peace. Let us learn to say every day: "Lord, give me your peace, give me your Holy Spirit". This is a beautiful prayer. Shall we say it together? "Lord, give me your peace, give me your Holy Spirit"."

Prayers of the Faithful - Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRESIDER: Dear friends, for those who turn to him in faith, Jesus offers healing and life. Let us pray for the whole world to find fulfilling life in him.

1. We pray for Christian communities in every land, that they may be families of faith in which all can find healing, wholeness and hope. Lord, hear us.
2. We pray for the spiritual renewal of humanity, that everyone will come to recognise the dignity and glory that is theirs as created images of God. Lord, hear us.
3. We pray for a global sharing of wealth, that nations with an abundance of resources will use their assets to enrich those with little to get by on. Lord, hear us.

4. We pray for baptised believers in historic lands where their communities have shrunk and are in decline, that their steadfast faith will give rise to new growth and vitality. Lord, hear us.
5. We pray for climate scientists, that their expertise will persuade government and industry policy-makers to do all in their power to keep the planet safe and healthy. Lord, hear us.
6. We pray for all Australians losing hope in ever securing affordable housing, that their plight will spur effective action to overcome generational inequity. Lord, hear us.
7. We pray for the police and all whose work is to keep the community safe, that they will hold fast to their ideals of service and be respected for their role. Lord, hear us.
8. We pray for those who grieve the loss of loved ones, that they will treasure their memories, find peace of heart, and dare to trust in the future. We pray for the recently deceased Rae Blinco, Joy Brighton, Valmai Garrahy, Patricia O’Dea, Noah Hawker and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time Josephine Cummings, Ellie Pauli, Aileen Stacey , Caroline Cartwright, Dulcie Moncrieff, Maurice Teagle, Oswald Cran, Noel Gundry, Laurie Reedy, Hedy Hurlimann . Lord, hear us.

PRESIDER: All-loving God, you never cease to bless us with the gift of life. Open our hearts in generous love for all that you have made. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

With Gratitude I would like to offer a personal thank you for the kindness, help and support that has been shown to me since I started in the role of Administration Support Officer in April of this year. I have been given some big shoes to fill while Noela is on leave, so I thank you all for your patience and understanding whilst I navigate my way through the role. I am very much enjoying the position and look forward to meeting you all. Leesa – Parish Office.
